

FRONTLINE SUNDAYS (extra): Good News Stories

'Good News' stories celebrate God at work. Here are some questions to help you think on this theme:

- What can you thank God for from the last week on your frontline? A conversation; an encounter; unexpected help; answered prayer; normality; a new opportunity a work...
- Do you find it easy to tell 'Good News' stories? If so, why? If not, what hinders you?
- Sometimes we need help remembering things are not coincidences but God-incidences. Ask the Spirit to help you be open to seeing more of what God is doing in the world, in your community, on your frontline and in your private life.
